Dear Trade show Vendor:

The Rhode Island Police Chiefs Association has been monitoring the coronavirus situation closely. Due to the unpredictability of the current situation and out of concern for the health and safety of the vendors and our members, we have made the decision to cancel the 2020 RIPCA Trade Show.

The trade show had been scheduled for Thursday October 8 at the Quonset O'Club in North Kingstown RI.

We will be issuing a full refund to any vendor who has already sent in their registration fee.

We appreciate your understanding and your support of The Rhode Island Police Chiefs Association. We look forward to seeing you at the 2021 Trade Show.

Please protect yourself and I wish you the best of health.

Brian W Sullivan
